IV. Public Comments

- Monique Davis, parent of a Simon Gratz High School student, expressed concerns regarding the recent separation of the school's football coach, citing limited communication with students and families and the coach's role as a mentor and positive presence in the community. She raised concerns about the emotional impact on student-athletes and requested that students have access to appropriate support and a safe avenue to express their concerns. She also requested greater transparency regarding the separation process.

- Dr. Joel Boyd confirmed that Dr. Jessica Varevice has already been in communication with Ms. Davis and will continue to follow up as the appropriate point of contact to ensure the concerns are addressed while respecting the rights of all parties and maintaining the integrity of the process.
